RSVP/Message Line: 323-860-5830 or Toll-Free: 877-688-4833 • seniors@lalgbtcenter.org
As we begin a new year, I want to remind our senior participants to complete our new registration forms and have your photos taken. I.D. cards will be provided to participants who have completed this in order to gain entry to the senior center. We are implementing this new protocol to maintain security at the new Anita May Rosenstein Campus and to easily collect information when you participate in an event or activity. I appreciate your help!

To complete this, you can:

1. Stop by The Village during our operating hours to complete the form and to take your photo.
2. Email seniors@lalgbtcenter.org and request a form to be emailed to you. If you prefer your own picture to be used, please email your headshot to us.

We have lots of engaging events scheduled in January, including Senior Services and the Center’s Trans* Lounge co-hosting a brunch on Sunday, January 13, with mimosas, an intergenerational mixer, and a screening of the documentary Screaming Queens. This event is open to all senior participants no matter how you identify.

We will be honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., with a Lunch for Everyone on Wednesday, January 16, from Noon – 2 p.m. Stay for a screening of the documentary I Am Not Your Negro, which will begin immediately after lunch at 2 p.m.

On January 19 in DTLA, the 3rd Annual Women’s March will be held from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. in Pershing Square. In the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: “We cannot walk alone. And as we walk, we must make the pledge that we shall always march ahead. We cannot turn back.” For those who can attend the march, it is an important time to support women’s rights. I look forward to seeing you there.

Join us for the award-winning documentary The Brain, a book featuring celebrated neuroscientist David Eagleman, lets us learn how our personality, memories, and our sense of self can come from brain activity. Does the unconscious brain control a significant part of our life? How can we help or hinder our decision-making as seniors? Why does our brain need input from other human beings to be healthy and survive? What does the term “brave new world of the brain” imply for seniors? IVY BOTTINI’S BOOK READING & SIGNING: THE LIBERATION OF IVY BOTTINI

WED., JAN. 16, 7–8:30 P.M.
EVENT 0103
RSVP REQUIRED

West Hollywood City Council
625 N. San Vicente Blvd, West Hollywood 90069

Join the City of West Hollywood’s Arts Division for a WeHo Reads event highlighting the new book The Liberation of Ivy Bottini, A Memoir of Love and Activism. Features a conversation between the feminist, LGBT activist and icon and her biographer Judith Branzberg. Bottini helped established the New York City chapter of the National Organization for Women and, in 1969, designed the NOW logo that is still used today. She moved to Los Angeles County in 1971 and became an activist for many LGBT causes, co-founding the Coalition for Human Rights, the Los Angeles Lesbian/Gay Police Advisory Board, AIDS Network LA, and AIDS Project LA. Her stories of transformative personal growth, sacrifice, and activism are not only inspirational and educational but also a model for activism from a leader in two of the most important liberation movements of the past half century—women’s liberation and gay and lesbian liberation.

A book signing will follow, with books available for sale. Sponsored by the City of West Hollywood’s Arts Division (@WeHo Arts) and Lesbian Speaker Series, Los Angeles LGBT Center, Hollywood NOW, and The June Mazer Lesbian Archives.

Brunch & a Movie

Join us for brunch and mimosa “happy hour” with a free screening of the 2005 documentary Screaming Queens (57 mins). This powerful film tells the forgotten story of transgender women and queer folks who fought police harassment at Compton’s Cafeteria in San Francisco in 1966, three years before the famous riot at the Stonewall Inn in New York.

Stay after the screening for a fun and exciting intergenerational “speed-chatting” mixer to discuss the movie and your experiences.
